

NEWS OF OTHER TOWNS

Mt. Zion

The recent rains are all right for the wheat and those husking corn, but rather bad on the coal and lumber handlers.

Mrs. Henry Grove who has been seriously ill is slowly convalescing.

B. B. Woolery and Ed Heft while moving their engine from the creek, to this ridge had the misfortune to break a gear-wheel, Banjo said they just side-tracked the gentleman.

Andy Klenger rather likes the hollow where the sawmill sets, he goes down that way on Sundays as well as week days. What's the attraction, Andy?

Jesse Groves, of Doanville, was called to this neighborhood this week on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Henry Groves.

Rev. Massie, of Gallipolis, preached a very interesting sermon to an attentive congregation, at Zion, last Sunday.

Mrs. Kitty Wise, of Logan, was down to see her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Groves, one day this week.

What has become of the switch on the Buoy Bee?

Mrs. Clem Thompson and Miss Goldie Thompson, of this ridge were the guests at the home of Mr. and Henry Todd last Tuesday.

The people of this neighborhood are just now considerably concerned about the financial panic. Is it coming?

No, it's passed.—Editor.

Mr. Ed. Woodard, of Columbus, visited his parents on Racoon Creek last Sunday.

Mr. Robert Frey, of Logan, and his sister, Mrs. James Oliver, were welcome guests of their aged aunt, Mrs. E. A. Atkinson, of near this place, Sunday.

Meeting that was being held at Connet came to an end this week, and will begin at Asbury Ridge next Sunday. Success to all who are working in the name of the Master.

Carbon Hill

I wish to correct some mistakes which occurred in last week's items, Miss May Hartley should have been Mrs. May Hartley, and Candy Town should have been Candy Town.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Blosser spent last week at West Columbia, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons, of Longstreth, spent last Sunday, here.

Garfield Spooner, of Jobs, spent last Sunday with his parents, here.

Mr. Eph Shaw, of this place, spent the greater part of last week in Logan, surveying.

Charles Roby, of Nelsonville, moved his family here last week. They come recommended as nice people. We extend our hand.

Joe Blosser spent last Sunday, near Athens.

Wm. Parks and John Tom are building a barn for Fred Stedwell, of this place.

Miss Tisha Parks, of this place, in company with other friends is

Supplies For Butchering Time

15, 20, 25 and 30 Gallon Kettles.

Butcher Knives --- all Kinds.

4, 6 and 8 Quart Lard Presses.

Hog Scrapers.

Dippers.

Lard Cans.

Everything but the Hogs.

Go To Work's

contemplating a trip to Europe. We wish them a happy journey.

Fred C. Rowling, of Columbus, and Etta Dasher, of this place, were recently united in the bonds of wedlock, our best wishes go with them.

Grandma Chute has gone to Lancaster, to spend the winter.

Squire elect, C. L. Morrison, of Clinton Tp., Vinton County, is a brother to your Uncle, he is only 30 years of age, and is the first Democrat elected to that office, in that township, since the spring of 1892. We also reach our hand to him. If he is like your Uncle do you think he will enforce the law?

What has become of Si Hubbard?

UNCLE HEZ.

North Rush Creek

Well as there has been no news from this place, for some time, we will try and mention some of the good happenings of the surrounding vicinity.

We are having some unpleasant weather at this time, although it does not seem to affect the farmers as they are about through husking corn. Well, maybe the farmers would rather hear about oil. The last well drilled on the Hustin farm is flowing its 150 barrel every 24 hours, and as good a grade of oil as can be found any where. They have had some very good offers for their field and expect better offers before they will sell, well so much for oil.

Rev. E. B. Bagwell was seen going down our valley, enroute to Hocking Co., last Saturday.

Levi Red and Son, of Web Summit, was a Bremen business visitor one day last week.

Rev. Daniel Hendricks, of Maxville, visited relatives and friends in Bremen, over last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Blackston, Samuel St. Clair and Mrs. W. J. Scholl attended Communion Service held in Bremen, last Monday evening.

The Evangelistic services which was held at the Brethren church, in Bremen, have closed after a three weeks service for Christ. There were 7 accessions to the church and many others expressed their willingness to unite with the church in the near future. Rev. E. E. Haskins, of Michigan, conducted the services. Rev. Haskins is surely a power in the service of Christ. He left Bremen with the honor of being the best Minister ever preached in the said village of Bremen.

I will close wishing all the Democrat readers a pleasant Thanksgiving and I hope the Editor will get all the turkey he can eat.

PUMPKIN PIE.

Rock House

Cold weather seems to have set in for good now. Old Si will have to hunt up his fur over coat and mittens.

Mr. Sol Kline, proprietor of the Rock House who had met with quite an accident a week ago is reported better at this writing.

Our Mail Carrier, Mr. Glaze, has taken a few days lay off. Mr. Davis of South Perry, has taken his place.

Mf. Joseph Fox, of Toad Run, was seen on our streets one day recently.

Mr. W. B. Zeigler and sons, Ray and Jess, of Cream Ridge, were business visitors on our streets Saturday morning.

Mr. Wilbur Defenbaugh, of Stump Run, is going to move in Aaron Lindsey's property this week.

Mr. Bert Smith has left his country home to work in Logan.

Preaching at Oak Grove Saturday night was well attended. Rev. Gerrabrant, the pastor, took supper with Sol Kline, of the Rock House, Saturday evening.

Plow Boy.

Marion

Abram Mowery has had poor health the past two weeks.

"Mich" McCune has been in ill health for a year or more. He is much worse now, and his recovery is doubtful.

Several letters have been received by our young people from Miss Sally Weaver, who, with her parents, went to Virginia recently. She reports a pleasant trip, says the weather there is like summer. The people are just digging potatoes.

A brand new baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets the 19.

No. 9 school gave a spelling on the evening of the 22. The program consisted of spelling, singing, select reading and recitations. Some of the little scholars rendered some cute pieces in an able manner.

Low Carpenter and wife, of Logan, attended church in Marion, Sunday.

Our Citizens are talking of erecting a toll-gate on the new pike north of David Wolf's residence, also a notice with a fine attached for fast driving. Some drive so fast over the new pike that pedestrians are in danger. Automobiles will be positively forbidden to travel over this road.

Mr. Jess Ray, of near Union Furnace, was moving his household goods to Bremen through Marion twp. last week. He is moving to the Ashbaugh farm just north of town.

Bang, bang, bang, poor little Bob White, how I long to defend you if I only could, however we have a little consolation for I have heard it said "bird dogs are at a premium." I would to God, for your sake, that bird dogs were annihilated.

New Geigertown

As we have not seen any items from this place we will jot down a few of the latest and important happenings.

Miss Nellie Geiger visited her brother, Wm. Geiger, and family a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hod Mohler are the proud parents of a girl.

The most of the people of this place intend to butcher next week and high living will be the effect for a while.

John Everhart, of Fairfield county, was a visitor at this place a few days ago.

John Geiger is building a fine residence in Logan, where he will move when completed.

Austin True, of Fairfield county, seems to make regular trips to this place. There seems to be some great attraction.

The people of this place are nearly through husking corn.

Visitor.

String Town

Misses Stella Murphy and Jennie Beougher spent Tuesday in Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beougher, of this place, attended the sale of Florence Ault, of Cola Valley, last Thursday.

Mr. Daniel Weltner called on Mr. B. T. Beougher, Friday.

Will Beougher, of Lancaster, spent Thursday and Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beougher.

Miss Stella Murphy passed through the valley, Friday afternoon.

Frank Harden was seen buggy riding on the pike, Sunday.

Miss Etta Beougher spent several days in Logan, the guest, of Mrs. Clate Fickell.

Mrs. Jesse Kelley called on Mrs. Benj. Beougher, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Boyd Ridnours, of this place have moved to Rockbridge.

Dr. Lee passed through our town Monday.

Boyd Goss, of Rockbridge, passed through this vicinity, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kline, Mr. Clint Jackson and family, Mrs. John Beougher and Miss Emma Dupler spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Dupler.

Jess McGrady was seen on the pike last Sunday.

Mr. Hanbuager, of Lancaster, called on Mr. Benjamin Beougher, Monday.

Old Town

Messrs. Albert Swalley and Hod Red, of Columbus, is visiting Samuel Geil and family at present.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Geil visited S. Swick and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nigh, of Columbus, is visiting Isaac Wolf's at this writing.

A number of people from this place attended big meeting at Pleasant Hill last week.

Mrs. Lydia Red, of Columbus, is visiting Samuel Geil and family.

A spelling was given at No. 9 Friday night. A large crowd was in attendance, and the spelling was fine before recess. The following program was rendered by the scholars after recess.

Song—Darling Gray, by the Misses Ida Fickell, Anna Geil, Estella Wright, Goldie Sholl and the teacher, J. R. E. Hartman.

Select Reading—Thanksgiving, by Goldie Sholl.

Recitation—Blt Off Its Own Toe, by Carl Sholl.

Select Reading—Give Thanks

EDWARD FOLLENSBEE NOYES—1873-1874.

Edward Follensbee Noyes was governor of Ohio from 1873 to 1874. He was no less brilliant a soldier than Governor Cox or Governor Hayes, whom he succeeded. He was born in Haverhill, Mass., Oct. 3, 1832. He studied and began the practice of law in Cincinnati. He went into the war a major of the Thirty-ninth Ohio Infantry, later promoted to colonel. He lost a leg at Ruff's Mills after having been in every movement of his regiment. He was then assigned to command of Camp Dennison and became brigadier general. In 1877 President Hayes appointed General Noyes minister to France, from which position he resigned in 1881, returning to the practice of law in Cincinnati. He died Sept. 4, 1890.

for What, by Estella Wright.

Recitation—A Sailor, by Davie Sholl.

Recitation—The Garden Stuff is on a Strike, by Susie Poling.

Recitation—When Mother Went Away, by Beulah Poling.

Song—Wondering Boy, by Ethel Inboden.

Select Reading—The Blue and the Gray, by Ida M. Fickell.

Recitation—When Teacher gets Cross, by Goldie Sholl.

Select Reading—Brigant Banks and Greta Woods, by Frank Poling.

Recitation—A Sea Shell, by John Fickell.

Select Reading—A Husband's Experience in Cooking, by Edward Fickell.

Recitation—Matty's Wishes and Wants, by Jessie Wright.

Select Reading—Am De Life Wuf Libin, by Jesse Fickell.

Recitation—My Flower, by Fanchion Fickell.

Recitation by Anna Geil.

Song—Cheerful Companions, by Ida Fickell, Anna Geil, Goldie Sholl and Estella Wright.

SCHOLAR.

Dancing Proves Fatal

Many men and women catch colds at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the genuine in a yellow package. Bort & Co.

New Brownsville

Protracted meeting is in progress at Pleasant Hill, with Rev. J. O. Geiger preacher.

Mrs. O. Clark, of Nelsonville, is visiting A. Brown and family, at present.

Mr. Wm. Canan is enjoying life in Columbus at this writing.

Mr. Clifford Brown is working at Carroll.

Miss Bertha Swick visited Miss Rilla Brown a few days ago.

Miss Carrie Stivison, who is teaching school near Gibsonville, visited her home at this place, Sunday.

Preaching at Mt. Tabor, Sunday, at 2:30, by Rev. Cheadle.

Mr. Robert Brown, while buggy riding one evening a few days ago, dashed into another horse and rig. His horse scared and run away, throwing him and his lady friend, Miss Rose Baldwin, out, and being lucky, neither was hurt. The buggy and harness were considerably damaged, but the horse was unhurt.

Miss Rilla Brown returned home from an extended visit at Nelsonville, Friday.

Quite a number from this place attended the Spelling at No. 9, Friday night, and all report a good time.

Messrs. Frank Poling and Orla Wolfe attended big meeting at Pleasant Hill, Sunday evening.

I. Houston visited A. Brown's, Monday.

Clifford Brown, of Carroll, visited his home at this place, Friday evening.

The good, old summer time is past and the cold days are here. Instead of plowing, hoeing or cutting corn, or making lay, the boys are going to school, hunting, or thinking about sleigh-riding, and the girls, instead of picking berries or hoeing in the garden, are having jolly times sitting by the old grate, sewing quilt patches. Each season brings its work, so that the human soul can work at all times and be strong and happy.

Rockbridge

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Whipper, of Columbus, spent a few days of last week with friends at this place.

Mr. John Inboden and family, of Logan, visited relatives at this city, Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Conrad was a Lancaster shopper Wednesday.

Mrs. Fannie White and daughter, Nellie, of Carroll, visited Chas. Jackson and family Thursday and Friday.

Misses Stella Sheets and Sarah McConnell were Logan shoppers, Monday.

Mrs. Lizzie Hellyard, of Murray City, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Callie McBroom, at present.

Mr. Lou Ridenour spent Saturday in Lancaster.

Miss Lizzie Elenger spent Friday and Saturday with her brother, Will and family, of Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Derry and son, Lawrence, of Lancaster, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this city.

Mr. Bert Edwards was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Cassie Earley is visiting her sister, Mrs. Maggie Hamblin, of this place.

Messrs. L. S. Mathias and Sam McConnell spent Saturday in Lancaster.

Mr. George Jackson and daughter, Emma Cruik, attended the funeral of Ellen White at this place Thursday.

Miss Lulu Rider was a Logan shopper Friday.

Mr. Webb Deeds and family visited Sugar Grove friends Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Wharton was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Brushy Fork

Miss Cora Sheets was a Lancaster visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Col. Friesner were visiting in Logan last week.

Mrs. Emma Federer is spending a couple of weeks in Columbus.

Quite a number of youngsters attended the dance at Mr. John Wolshire, last Thursday night.

Mrs. Yon Sheets met with a painful accident, last week, by falling through the straw mow in their barn.

Joseph Reber has accepted a position as assistant agent, at Sugar Grove.

Frank Conrad and "Old" Grant Wiseman have taken an overland trip to Creola, Vinton County, where they expect to make their future home, as they are very much in love with the country and the people. Their future occupation will be raising rabbits and rocky mountain goats. We wish them unbounded success in their chosen profession. Both being renowned agriculturists, being graduates of the Ohio State University.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reber, of Columbus, were visiting their parents in this community.

Miss Sarah Martin returned to Fostoria, Ohio, leaving her old friends behind in tears.

Mr. Jack Schurgert in trying to cut down expenses for the Ohio and Indiana Supply Company undertook to move a pipe pulling outfit on a wheelbarrow, and by overloading himself he broke his back in three places and crippled himself badly. Mr. George W. Johnson and S. L. Stukeby, Esq., are Mr. Schurgert's nurses during his convalescence.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Shoenenborgher, a seven pound boy.

Mr. Fred Sharp made a good deal in purchasing a bunch of cattle, getting a cook to boot.

"Old Gum" Grant Matheny is still bug house on the subject of love.

Mrs. Philip Martin was a Columbus visitor, recently.

Miss Mary Brillman, of Lancaster, is visiting her father.

"Fuzzy" William Conrad is holding his half-grown opossum pet for an advance in the fur trade.

Benjamin Franklin Byers purchased a blooded, ninety dollar, cow of Mrs. Lewis Kull.

Mr. and Mrs. Col. Friesner entertained Mrs. John Flegle, of Lancaster, as their guest last week.

Mrs. Frank Conrad, daughter Jessie and son Delbert, were Lancaster visitors Saturday.

Miss Sarah Martin and Miss Mary L. Matheny were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Byers.

Chas. Brillman was the guest of Dr. H. M. Pete Rhodes, Sunday.

Boys get your oyster cans and tin horns ready, as there will be an old time belling in Brushy Fork, as one of our popular old bachelors intends to take unto himself a helpmeet.

Mr. "Silver" Matheny, President of the Brushy Fork Sand Bank has retired from business on account of declining years, love and failing health. Mr. Matheny has been a most successful business light among his fellowmen, having accumulated oodles of money. The only thing now to mar his future happiness is the lack of a form, in the shape of a young and beautiful woman. We wish "Silver" all the happiness possible during his years of retirement.

George Reber was in Lancaster, Saturday, on business.

Joseph Crist was in Sugar Grove, Saturday.

We have secured the agency for Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup, the new laxative that makes the liver lively, purifies the breath, cures headache and regulates the digestive organs. Cures chronic constipation. Ask us about it. Bort & Co.

Obituary.

Mary Anne Hansel, daughter of Jacob and Nancy Hansel, was born near Logan, O., September 22nd, 1861, and departed this life October 23rd, 1907, aged 46 years, 1 month, and 1 day.

Her father died when she was four years of age, and her mother preceded her about five years. When about seven years of age, she went to make her home with her Grand-parents—Mr. and Mrs. George Hansel Sr.

She was united in marriage to George Rauber, December 13th, 1881. To this union was born two sons—William H. and Andrew.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, two sons, one sister, two brothers and numerous other relatives and friends.

She united with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Ewing, May 16th, 1885, and remained a faithful member until her death. She was a kind, patient, and affectionate companion and mother, always thoughtful of the comfort and future welfare of her family and those around her.

Her last sickness lasted about six weeks with that much dreaded disease, Typhoid Fever, which had entered the home. She bore her sufferings with patience and christian fortitude until death relieved her. She was laid to rest in the Ewing Cemetery, after a short discourse at the home, and services at the church, Reverend Spoehr officiating.

Our home is in a high profound, Each room the shadows fill; How can the affairs of home go round When her worn hands are still?

A happiness from life has passed That nevermore can be; We've lost our best friend, and the last That e'er can love as she.

Her labor was a pleasure she In life's career wanted of; Whatever the care or pain might be Was all runned by love.

She always made our home as fair, No murmurs marred her cheer; She ever smiled a welcome there When outer skies were drear.

Already all around us bears An unfamiliar guise; For it, almost no longer wears The look of her dear lovely eyes.

Our lives have changed; grief and woe Has dimmed its shining grace; For no one shall we ever know To take dear wife and mother's place.

Dear wife and mother, you have left us, Your pleasant voice is still; You have left a vacant place, That never can be filled.

CARDS OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown us during the sickness, death, and burial of our wife and mother.

GEO. RAUBER AND SONS.

MEMORIAL.

There is a reaper whose name is Death, And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between.

The beautiful autumn leaves lying scattered upon the ground, and the pretty flowers that grew and shed their beauty around us through the summer months and now perished by the autumn frost, but speak to us of this grim reaper, Death. And death has been in our midst and taken from a happy home one who will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

One whom we loved for her social and kind acts toward all. Yet, why need we weep? We know she has gone to a place prepared for her by the Master, where she will live in eternal joy and peaceful rest with the Father and angels in heaven.

Mary Anne Hansel was born September 22, 1861. In early youth she gave her trust to God and became a member of the Ewing Evangelical Lutheran church, on May 16, 1885, where she remained a faithful and consistent member until she was called from earthly woes to heavenly joys.

She was united in marriage to George Rauber, December 13, 1881, to this happy union were born two sons, Will and Andrew.

She departed this life October 23, 1907, at the age of 46 years, 1 month and 1 day. She was a kind wife and loving mother and leaves to mourn their loss a husband, two sons, one sister, two brothers and many relatives and friends.

Yet the bereaved do not mourn as those who have no hope, for we are comforted by the knowledge that she is asleep in Jesus.

She was united in marriage to George Rauber, December 13, 1881, to this happy union were born two sons, Will and Andrew.

She departed this life October 23, 1907, at the age of 46 years, 1 month and 1 day. She was a kind wife and loving mother and leaves to mourn their loss a husband, two sons, one sister, two brothers and many relatives and friends.

Yet the bereaved do not mourn as those who have no hope, for we are comforted by the knowledge that she is asleep in Jesus.

She was united in marriage to George Rauber, December